

164. Removal for failing to keep up or increase security

Where a trustee or special manager has given security in the prescribed manner but fails to keep up such security or, if called upon to do so, to increase such security, the court may remove him from his office.