

Service and Execution of Process and Enforcement of Orders

19. Duties of bailiff

- (1) It shall be the duty of the bailiff to serve such orders, summonses, petitions and notices as the court may require him to serve; to execute warrants and other process; to attend any sittings of the court if so required by the court (but not sittings in chambers); and to do and perform all such things as may be required of him by the court.
- (2) Nothing in this rule shall require any order, summons, petition, or notice to be served by a bailiff or officer of the court which is not specially by the Ordinance or rules required to be so served, unless the court in any particular proceeding by order specially so directs.
