

99D. Summoning of creditors' meeting

(L.N. 123 of 2007)

- (1) The trustee may at any time summon a meeting of creditors, and shall do so whenever so directed by the court. (L.N. 123 of 2007)
- (2) Where the court directs a general meeting of creditors to be summoned under this rule, it shall be summoned as the court directs.
- (3) (Repealed L.N. 123 of 2007)
- (4) The trustee shall, not less than 7 days before such meeting, send a copy of the order to each creditor at the address given in his proof, or when he has not proved, the address given in the list of creditors by the debtor, or such other address as may be known to the trustee. (L.N. 123 of 2007)

(L.N. 77 of 1998)