

56. Default in attending

- (1) If any person who has been directed by the court to attend for public examination fails to attend at the day, time and place appointed for holding or proceeding with the same, and no good cause is shown by him for such failure, or if before the day appointed for the examination the Official Receiver or liquidator satisfies the court that such person has absconded, or that there is reason for believing that he is about to abscond with the view of avoiding examination, it shall be lawful for the court, upon its being proved to the satisfaction of the court that notice of the order and of the day, time and place appointed for attendance at the public examination was duly served, without any further notice, to issue a warrant for the arrest of the person required to attend, or to make such other order as the court shall think just. (See Form 38) (46 of 2000 s. 40; 14 of 2016 s. 141)
- (2) A warrant of arrest issued by the court under this rule shall be issued in the Registry of the High Court pursuant to an order of the court directing such issue. (See Form 38A) (25 of 1998 s. 2)
