

Admission and Rejection of Proofs and Preferential Claims, and Appeal to the Court

93. Notice to creditors to prove

- (1) Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, and unless otherwise ordered by the court, the liquidator in any winding up may from time to time fix a certain day, which shall be not less than 14 days from the date of the notice, on or before which the creditors of the company are to prove their debts or claims, and to establish any title they may have to priority under section 265 of the Ordinance or to be excluded from the benefit of the distribution made next after that date and from the benefit of any previous distribution or as the case may be from objecting to such distribution, and the liquidator shall give notice in writing of the day so fixed by advertisement in such newspaper as he shall consider convenient, and in a winding up by the court to every person mentioned in the statement of affairs or a supplementary affidavit in relation to that statement as a creditor, and who has not proved his debt, and to every person mentioned in the statement of affairs or a supplementary affidavit in relation to that statement as a preferential creditor whose claim to be a preferential creditor has not been established and is not admitted, and in any other winding up to the last known address or place of abode of each person who, to the knowledge of the liquidator, claims to be a creditor or preferential creditor of the company and whose claim has not been admitted. (L.N. 376 of 1989; 14 of 2016 s. 152)
- (2) All the rules hereinafter set out as to admission and rejection of proofs shall apply with the necessary variation to any such claim to priority as aforesaid.
