

147. Service

- (1) The petition shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be served on each executor who has proved the will or, as the case may be, on each person who has taken out letters of administration or, if there is no personal representative in Hong Kong, on the Official Administrator. The court may also, if the court thinks fit, order the petition to be served on any other person.
- (2) Service shall be proved in the same way as in the case of an ordinary creditor's petition, and the petition shall be heard in the like manner. (G.N.A. 124 of 1955)
- (3) Where any executor or administrator or the Official Administrator, as the case may be, intends to show cause against the petition, he shall file with the Official Receiver a notice specifying the grounds on which he intends to show cause and shall transmit by post to the petitioning creditor, or to his solicitor, a copy of the notice, in each case three days before the day on which the petition is to be heard.
