

83. Adjournments sine die

Where the court is of opinion that a bankrupt is failing to disclose his affairs or where the bankrupt has failed to attend the public examination or any adjournment thereof or where the bankrupt has not complied with any order of the court in relation to his accounts, conduct, dealings and property and no good cause is shown by him for such failure, the court may forthwith commit the bankrupt for contempt of court or may adjourn the public examination sine die, and may make such further or other order as the court thinks fit.
