

174. Application for directions

Where a trustee applies to the court for directions in any matter, he shall file an application, and the court shall then hear the application, or fix a day for hearing it, and direct the trustee to apply by motion.

(G.N.A. 124 of 1955)