

135. Creditor's petition against firm

Where a petition is filed against a firm, the petitioning creditor, or if the petitioning creditor is a firm then one of the partners therein, shall state on affidavit the names and addresses of all the partners in the debtor firm to the best of his information and belief.