

4. Particulars to be furnished by officers of court

- (1) The form in which the particulars are to be furnished is—
 - (a) that set out in Schedule 1 with such variations as circumstances require and the particulars contained therein are the particulars specified for that purpose;
 - (b) that set out in Schedule 2 with such variations as circumstances require when a grant of leave is made by the court, and the particulars contained therein are the particulars specified for that purpose;
 - (c) that set out in Schedule 3 with such variations as circumstances require when any action is taken by a court in consequence of which a disqualification order is varied or ceases to be in force, and the particulars contained therein are the particulars specified for that purpose.
 - (2) A prescribed officer of the court is to furnish the Registrar with the said particulars as soon as practically possible.
