

110. Employees' wages

In any case in which it appears from the bankrupt's statement of affairs that there are numerous claims for wages by employees or others employed by the bankrupt, it shall be sufficient if one proof for all such claims is made either by the bankrupt or by his supervisor or some other person on behalf of all such creditors. Such proof shall have annexed thereto, as forming part thereof, a schedule setting forth the names of the employees or others and the amounts severally due to them. Any proof made in compliance with this rule shall have the same effect as if separate proofs had been made by each of the said employees or others.

(L.N. 77 of 1998)