

155. Removal of special manager

If the court appoints a special manager, the Official Receiver may at any time remove him if his employment seems unnecessary or unprofitable to the estate, and he shall remove him if so required by a special resolution of the creditors.

(L.N. 77 of 1998)