

122ZA. Production of accounts and records to Official Receiver

- (1) The Official Receiver may at any time during the course of the voluntary arrangement or after its completion require the nominee to produce for inspection—
  - (a) his accounts and records in respect of the arrangement; and
  - (b) copies of abstracts and reports prepared in compliance with rule 122Z.
- (2) The Official Receiver may require production either at the premises of the nominee or elsewhere; and it is the duty of the nominee to comply with any requirement imposed on him under this rule.
- (3) The Official Receiver may cause any accounts and records produced to him under this rule to be audited; and the nominee shall give to the Official Receiver such further information and assistance as he needs for the purposes of his audit.
