

33. Solicitor's costs in case of petition by debtor

The solicitor in the matter of a bankruptcy petition presented by the debtor against himself shall in his bill of costs give credit for such sum or security (if any) as he may have received from the debtor as a deposit on account of the costs and expenses to be incurred in and about the filing and prosecution of such petition, and the amount of any such deposit shall be noted by the taxing officer upon the allocatur issued for such costs.