

171. Delivery of books, etc., on release of trustee

The release of a trustee shall not take effect unless and until he has duly delivered over all the books, papers, documents and accounts which by these rules he is required to deliver over on his release.