

360J. Obstruction of Official Receiver

Every person who—

- (a) without lawful excuse refuses to hand over to the Official Receiver or any person authorized by him in that behalf any key, safe, document, account book, or other thing of any nature whatsoever belonging to the company of which he may have the custody or possession; or
- (b) without lawful excuse in any way obstructs the Official Receiver or any person authorized by him in that behalf in taking possession of any premises occupied by the company prior to its dissolution, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine and imprisonment.

(Amended 7 of 1990 s. 2)
