

158. Application for directions

In any case of doubt or difficulty or in any matter not provided for by the Ordinance or any rules thereunder relating to any proceeding in court, the Official Receiver may apply to the court for directions.