

63. Further deposit necessary

If the sum of $3,000, and such further sum so to be deposited for the expenses which may be incurred by the Official Receiver, proves to be insufficient, the person on whose application the order has been made shall from time to time deposit with the Official Receiver such additional sum as the court may, on the application of the Official Receiver, from time to time direct, and such sum shall be deposited within 48 hours after the making of a written request therefor. If such additional sum be not so deposited, the order appointing the interim trustee may be discharged by the court.
