

153. Use of proxies by deputy

Where the Official Receiver holds any proxies but cannot conveniently attend any meeting of creditors at which such proxy or proxies might be used, he may depute some person under his official control, by writing under his hand, to attend such meeting and use proxies on his behalf and in such manner as he may direct.