

72A. Drawing up and contents of bankruptcy order

- (1) It shall be the duty of the petitioner, or his solicitor, and of all other persons who have appeared on the hearing of the petition, at latest on the day following the day on which a bankruptcy order is pronounced in court, to leave with the Registrar a draft of the order and all other documents required for the purpose of enabling the Registrar to complete the order forthwith.
- (2) It shall not be necessary for the Registrar to make an appointment to settle an order unless in any particular case the special circumstances make an appointment necessary.
- (3) A bankruptcy order, or an order for the appointment of an interim trustee shall contain at the foot thereof a notice stating that it will be the duty of the petitioner or the debtor to attend on the interim trustee, provisional trustee or trustee, as the case may be, at such time and place as he may appoint and to give him all information he may require.
